

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title	Super League Squad Physiotherapist
Responsible to	Head of Performance
Hours of Work	Sessional
Contract	March – June 2007

Job Purpose

To deliver a World Class physiotherapy service to an agreed Team England Squad

Main Duties

1. To provide injury diagnosis/ advice/ treatment/management at training and match weekends including strapping as required
2. Liaise with squad coaches over injury and injury management
3. Immediate care of injuries at training and pitchside for matches
4. To provide reports and monitoring and evaluation reports as required and maintain appropriate records for treatments
5. At all times to observe and abide by the RFUW rules, regulations and codes of conduct to avoid bringing the game or the RFUW into disrepute

RUGBY FOOTBALL UNION FOR WOMEN

SUPER LEAGUE PHYSIOTHERAPIST

PERSON SPECIFICATION

1. Qualified Chartered Physiotherapist
2. Knowledge and experience of Sports physiotherapy
3. Knowledge and experience of elite sports
4. Excellent interpersonal skills
5. Ability to work in a team
6. Proven organisational abilities
7. Good communication skills both written and verbal
8. Commitment to continuing professional development
9. Ability to work evenings and weekends as necessary